

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

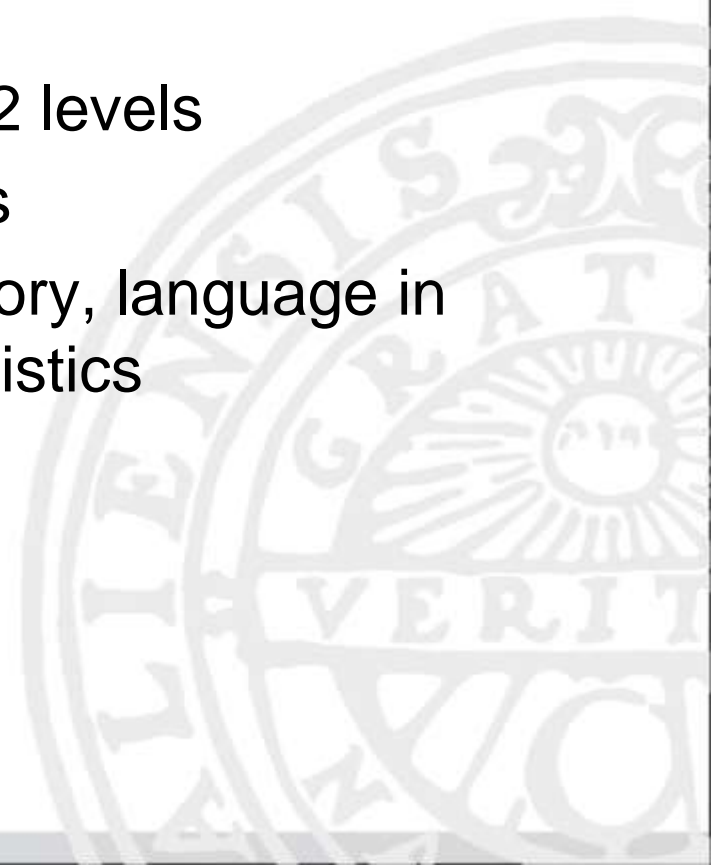

Department of Scandinavian Languages

A department with many opportunities for international students, depending on the purpose and goals of their studies.

- Courses in Swedish, from A1 to C2 levels
- Courses in other Nordic languages
- Courses in Swedish language history, language in society, multilingualism, sociolinguistics

Welcome to Uppsala!

Why Uppsala?

- The oldest university Scandinavia – founded in 1477
- 53 658 students
- City focused on student life
- Close to both culture and nature

Basic Swedish, A1 – B2

Basic Swedish 1, 7.5 hp

Basic Swedish 2, 7.5 hp

Basic Swedish 3, 7.5 hp

Basic Swedish 4, 7.5 hp

Swedish for exchange students, C1

Swedish for Exchange Students, Level
1, 30 credits

Swedish for Exchange Students, Level
2, 30 credits

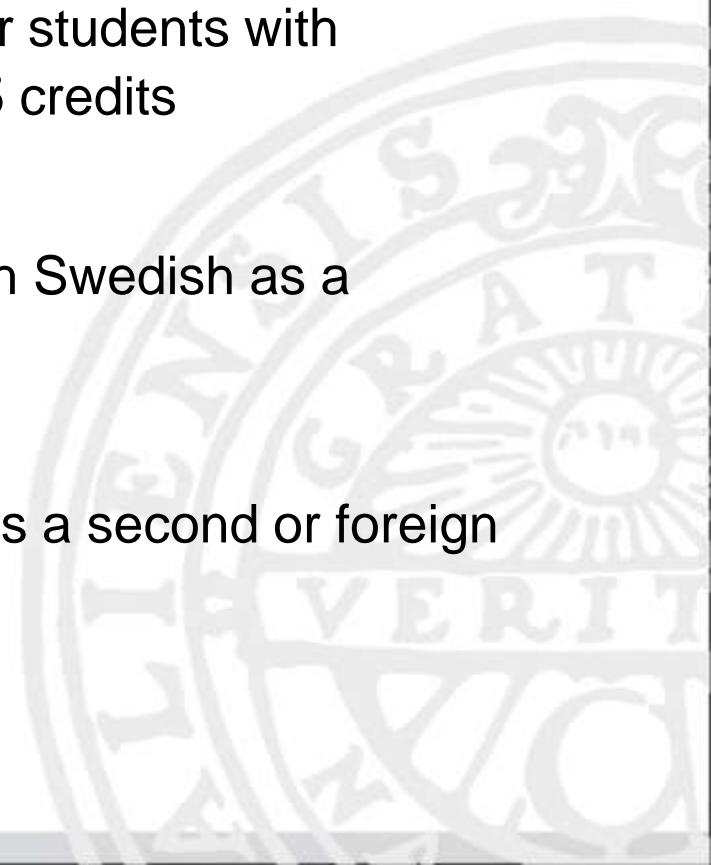

Swedish in Academic Contexts, C2

Reading in Academic Contexts for students with Swedish as a second or foreign language, 7.5 credits

Oral Communication in Academic Contexts for students with Swedish as a second or foreign language, 7.5 credits

Writing in Academic Contexts for students with Swedish as a second or foreign language, 7.5 credits

Academic Writing for students with Swedish as a second or foreign language, 7.5 credits

The other Nordic languages

- Norwegian
- Danish
- Icelandic

Courses

- Multilingualism
- Name Studies
- Conversation Research
- Language and Learning
- Language History
- Text Studies
- Runology

Contact:

Studievagledningen@nordiska.uu.se

Master's program in Scandinavian studies

- Eligibility: Bachelor's degree in humanities or social sciences, including 60 credits in Scandinavian studies (linguistic or literary studies in Danish, Faroese, Icelandic, Norwegian, or Swedish)
- Specialization in either Linguistics or Literature

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

Questions?

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET